Electronic Device Procedures, Information and Agreement Handbook 2020-2021

We believe in promoting independent learners that will work in a flexible environment that is inquiry-driven, thoughtful and empowering - not bound by location, socio-economics and/or disability. We believe that technology must serve pedagogy, while at the same time technology will transform pedagogy. We believe in preparing all students to be self-advocates, responsible digital citizens, develop high-level executive function skills and transition to life after leaving Forrestville Valley School District #221. We believe in enhancing creativity, communication, critical thinking, and collaboration for all. We believe in redefining and extending the school space beyond the physical classroom walls and constraints of time where synchronous and asynchronous learning may occur in formal and informal ways. We believe in raising the level of expectation for student performance and teacher innovation. Finally, we believe in moving Forrestville Valley School District #221 to be a recognized world leader in education.

Excellence in education requires that technology be seamlessly integrated throughout the educational program. Increasing access to technology is essential for the future, and one of the learning tools of our twenty-first century students is an Electronic Device. The individual use of Electronic Devices is a way to empower students to maximize their full potential and to prepare them for college and the workplace. Learning results from the continuous dynamic interaction among students, educators, parents and the extended community. Technology immersion does not diminish the vital role of the teacher. To the contrary, it transforms the teacher from a director of learning to a facilitator of learning. Effective teaching and learning with Electronic Devices integrates technology into the curriculum anytime, anyplace.
